

Introducing Summer Funner Theatre

Summer Funner Theatre is a week long drama and music camp for children. Throughout the week, children are involved in a variety of experiences aimed at teaching them the art of theatre. Each child will have the opportunity to learn lines, songs, choreography and drama techniques as well as many of the backstage responsibilities which go into making a good theater production. The culmination of the week's work is a musical comedy production performed on Friday and Saturday evening.

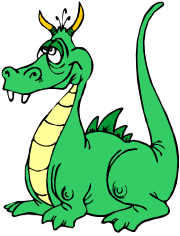

We desire to introduce children to the fun of theater while, at the same time, encouraging their uniqueness as a special person loved by God.

A Tale of A Dragon, our production for the summer of 2008, aims to encourage children to trust in the Lord in all situations and not give in to the dragons (temptations) they face in everyday life.

We hope you'll join us for this week of song and dance fun! There's a part that's just right for you. Don't be draggin' your feet— come on along!!
